LOGOS BAPTIST CHURCH (MILLIKEN)

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

CONSTITUTION

1. Name

Logos Baptist Church (Milliken) herein after referred to as “the Church”.

2. Purpose

This Church is to exalt God, to reconcile man to Him, and to equip His disciples for ministries. With Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord and under the continuous guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Church is founded and directed by His Word to establish the New Testament Church. We acknowledge ourselves to be a local manifestation of the Universal Church under the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

3. Affiliation

This Church shall maintain affiliation with the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec and with the Toronto Association of Baptist Churches.

4. Statement Of Faith

The basis of the statement of faith of this Church shall be the fundamental truths as revealed in the Holy Scriptures, including the following:

4.1. The Bible

We believe that the Holy Scriptures, both the Old and the New Testaments in their entirety as set forth in its original writings, are the only written Word of God, divinely inspired, without error in all that it affirms, and the only infallible rule and final authority in all matters of faith and conduct.

2 Tim. 3:16, 17; 2 Peter 1:20-21

4.2. The Triune God

We believe in the one eternal and immortal God, who is Spirit, infinite in being and in all perfection, Creator, Preserver and Governor of all things, existing eternally in three persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; who governs all things according to the purpose of His will. All three persons have the same nature, attributes, and perfection, but each executing distinct, yet harmonious, operations in the works of creation and redemption.

Deut. 6:4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Col. 1:12-17

4.3. Our Lord Jesus Christ

We believe that there is only one Savior, Jesus Christ, who is the Eternal Son of God and who in His incarnation united to His divine nature, a true human nature, and so continues to be the only God-man. We further believe that there is only one Gospel of Jesus Christ, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary; perfectly obeyed the law of God, gave Himself as the only ransom for sinners and rose again bodily on the third day for our justification; He ascended to the Father's right hand and is the only Mediator between God and man.

Phil. 2:6-11; Acts 4:12; Matt. 1:18-25; 2 Cor. 5:21; Heb. 7:25

4.4. The Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the third person of the blessed Trinity, to convict men of their sins, to make effective the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and dwells in every born again believer, and by His baptism unites all to Christ in one body. We further believe that we should be constantly filled with the Holy Spirit who is the power, guide and counselor of all our daily walk, worship and service.

John 14:17; 14:26; John 16:7-15; 1 Cor. 12:13; 6:19-20; Eph. 5:18; Gal. 5:22-23; Acts 1:8

4.5. Salvation

We believe that God in His mercy and grace, in accordance with His eternal purpose, saves all who repent of their sins and trust in Jesus Christ, justifying them through faith in the Savior and giving them new life by the Holy Spirit. We further believe that true believers are kept by the power of God so that none is lost; but the idea that this secure position in Christ entitles one to sin with impunity is false and pernicious.

Eph. 2:4-10; Rom. 3:22; 5:1; John 3:16, 36; 5:34; 2 Pet. 3:18; John 6:37-40; 10:28; Rom. 5:9; 8:1,30,38,39; Phil. 1:6; Heb. 3:14; 1 John 3:4-10; Jude 24

4.6. Man

We believe that man was created in the image of God with body, mind and soul, but he sinned, and in consequence incurred not only physical death, but also spiritual death which is separation from God, bringing sin, guilt, depravity and death upon all his posterity except the Virgin born Lord Jesus Christ.

Gen. 1:26,27; Rom 5:12

4.7. The (Universal) Church

We believe that the Church is the pillar and foundation of truth and the Body of Christ is made up of all true believers.

1 Tim. 3:15; 1 Cor. 12:12-13; Eph. 1:23

4.8. Things To Come

We believe that, at a day and hour known only to God, our Lord Jesus Christ shall come again personally, bodily, visibly and gloriously to establish His Kingdom of righteousness and peace. We believe in the resurrection of the just and of the unjust, and in the eternal blessedness of the redeemed and the eternal punishment of the unjust.

Mark 13:32; Acts 1:11; 1 Thess. 4:14-17; John 5:28,29; Rev. 20:11-15

BYLAWS

5. Membership

The obligations of Church members are summarized as follows:

We confess our faith in Jesus Christ as our Savior and Lord and our sincere desire to serve Him faithfully in the fellowship of His Church. By the help of the Holy Spirit we will order our lives according to the Scriptures. We will endeavor to set a Christian example at all times and to witness to others that they may believe. We promise to make diligent use of all the means of grace, to attend the Sunday services regularly, to observe the Lord's Supper, and to be at other services as we can, especially those in which we have responsibility. We promise to promote the Lord's work at Logos Baptist Church (Milliken) by our gifts, our prayers and service, to preserve the unity of the Spirit, to encourage one another to love and good works, and in all things to give our Lord Jesus Christ the pre-eminence.

5.1. Admission Of Members:

Any person professing faith in Jesus Christ as personal Lord and Savior, giving evidence of the new life in Christ (John 3:5-8; Gal. 5:22-23), living consistent Christian life and refraining from acts of sinful nature (Rom. 1:25-2:11; 1Cor. 6:15-18, 7:1-2; 2 Cor. 5:17; Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Thess. 4:3-8; Heb. 13:4; 1 John 2:15), attending the Church regularly and supporting its work by tithes and offering, and who is in agreement with the "Statement of Faith" and the governing principles contained in these constitution and by-laws, may apply for membership in writing.

5.1.1. By Baptism: persons baptized by immersion after examination of their Christian faith, experience and purpose by the Pastoral Staff and the Deacons or, in the absence of either or both, the appointed representatives from the Church Council.

5.1.2. By Letter: persons previously baptized, bearing letters of transfer from their respective churches of like faith and order, may be received upon recommendation by either the (Language) Congregational Council, or the branch Church.

5.1.3. By Christian Experience: persons previously received adult baptism in another church of like faith and order who, in consequence of peculiar circumstances have no regular letter of transfer, may be received upon recommendation by the (Language) Congregational Council.

5.1.4. Special Circumstances:

5.1.4.1. If persons cannot be baptized by immersion because of health problem or other special conditions, they can be baptized by special arrangement with the approval of the Board of Deacons.

5.1.4.2. Infant Baptism will only be accepted if the person, after he or she has grown up as an adult, had a confirmation ceremony in front of the congregation.

Note: Admission of member by 5.1.2 or 5.1.3 or 5.1.4.2, the applicant(s) will be made known to the congregation through a Sunday Service announcement. If there are no objections within a month, the applicant(s) who has successfully completed the membership course will officially be accepted and become member(s) after the right-hand fellowship.

5.2. Duties And Privileges Of Members:

5.2.1. Members of the Church are expected to be faithful in all spiritual duties, to attend Church services regularly, to wholeheartedly support all Church ministries and finances, and to share in her organized evangelistic work.

5.2.2. Members of the Church are entitled and expected to participate accordingly in the events and activities that are provided by the Church, especially the monthly and annual Congregation Meetings.

5.2.3. Members under 5.5.1 classification shall have the right to vote and be elected for offices in the Church except those who are under 18 years old. They shall enjoy the privileges of participating in the monthly meetings and making decisions for the benefits of the Church.

5.3. General Procedures Of Disciplinary Actions For Members:

Member who shows persistent conduct incompatible with the Biblical standards or Church Constitution and/or who seeks to disturb the unity and peace of the Church may be subjected to the Church disciplinary actions.

5.3.1. Any member who commits the above mentioned and fails to repent after repeated confrontations by the Pastoral Staff and Deacons appointees, will first be forbidden to participate in the Lord's Supper and be suspended from his/her ministry, and if impenitence continues, the Church reserves the right to exercise disciplinary authority to discontinue his/her membership.

5.3.2. The Church may exercise the authority to remove his/her membership with the majority vote of the Board of Deacons.

5.3.3. Due to some special circumstances, that is, to protect the well being and interest of the Church and the party concerned, the decision of disciplinary action may not be disclosed to the congregation or general public.

5.4. Termination Of Membership:

- 5.4.1. By Transfer: Member in good standing may, at his/her own request, be transferred by a letter of recommendation to another church.
- 5.4.2. By Resignation: Any person who so desires may deliver in person to the Pastoral Staff, his/her written resignation as a member.
- 5.4.3. By Death: Upon the death of any member, his/her name shall be removed from the membership roll.
- 5.4.4. Member who has gone through the 5.3. "General Procedures Of Disciplinary Actions For Members" and failed to repent, may be excluded from Church membership. Readmission to Church membership will be considered individually and recommended by the Board of Deacons, and then be approved in the Congregation Meetings.

Note: Readmission of member by 5.4.4, the applicant(s) will be made known to the congregation in the monthly meeting. If there are no objections within a month, the acceptance of his/her application of membership will be announced in the next monthly meeting.

5.5. Classification Of Members:

- 5.5.1. Active Member: A person who is on the membership roll, attends the services of the Church on a regular basis and contributes financially to the Church.
- 5.5.2. Inactive Member: A person who is on the membership roll and attends either irregularly, or not at all, and who does not contribute financially to the Church.
- 5.5.3. Non-resident Member: A person who is on the membership roll and who does not attend the services of the Church due to geographical reason. (Such a person may be a contributor to the Church ministries and/or finance).

6. Ordinances And Practices

6.1. Ordinances: As instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ.

- 6.1.1. Believer's Baptism: The form and practice of baptism accepted and offered in this Church is that of baptism by immersion upon profession of faith. This acts as a proclamation of the believers' death to sin and his/her resurrection to newness of life in Christ Jesus. Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 2:38; Acts 8:12
- 6.1.2. Lord's Supper: The ordinance of the Lord's Supper shall be observed at least once a month and faithful attendance at its observance is expected of all members because it is done in remembrance of our Lord. We welcome fellow baptized Christians to share the table of our Lord with us. Luke 22:19-20; Matt. 26:26-29; Mark 14:22-25; 1 Cor. 11:23-29
